NEW GYOKURO HARVESTS

Gyokuro dates back to 1835, when it was created by a tea farmer in Japan who covered his tea leaves with straw mats to protect them from the frost during a particularly long and cold winter. The resulting tea, named the Jewel of Dew, was an instant success. Thereafter, the process of shading tea gardens, particularly in the region of Yame, was developed and improved, resulting in leaves which by means of reduced photosynthesis contained a high concentration of theanine and an exceptionally sweet, grassy flavour. Perfected over the years, this green tea was named Gyokuro, and is today one of the most precious teas in the world.

GYOKURO SAMURAI $24 per pot / $77 per 50g
Several weeks before the harvest, the plantation is shaded to infuse the leaves with chlorophyll, which results in a unique and verdant taste, recognised by connoisseurs worldwide. This intoxicating green tea yields an exquisite nectar, boasting a tannin-free infusion with the sweet scent of fresh grass. A work of art.

GYOKURO MIKADO $32.5 per pot / $120 per 50g
Elegance in a cup. Picked carefully by hand during a single annual harvest, this renowned garden is shaded for three weeks before picking to achieve a more intense, creamy flavour with few tannins. The shiny, forest green colored leaves yield a chartreuse green infusion with a high chlorophyll content, a sweet taste and a lingering subtle aftertaste. One of the most noble and refined teas of Japan, Gyokuro Mikado is ideal to drink alone or with a meal.

GYOKURO MINAMI $156.5 per pot / $738 per 50g
The Gyokuro Minami is cultivated in Hoshino village according to traditional methods kept secret for many generations. Sheltered for 20 days to produce a grassy bouquet, the needle-like leaves are luminescent and emerald green and yield a heady, biscuity flavour when infused which quickly deepens into a gentle sweetness. TWG Tea was able to procure the entire harvest of 4.5kg from this award-winning garden.

GYOKURO HISUI $164.5 per pot / $779 per 50g
This marvellous harvest was lovingly cultivated by the Master of Gyokuro, an exceptional craftsman with 59 years of experience. He works alone to achieve some of the most sought-after teas of Japan, the last in a great line of tea planters. Covered with hand braided rice mats called 'Komo' for 25 days, this Hon-Gyokuro is harvested by hand just once a year resulting in sea-green leaves of incredible intensity in chlorophyll. Rich and enveloping with thick and heady notes known as 'ooi-ka', this tea is of extraordinary quality. Because of our privileged relationship, TWG Tea reserved the entire 2019 harvest of 4.5kg.

IMPERIAL GYOKURO $228.5 per pot / $1,100 per 50g
TWG Tea is proud to offer privileged tea connoisseurs one of the rarest and grandest teas in the world, the Imperial Gyokuro cultivated by one of Japan's most renowned tea planters in Yame. Painstakingly cultivated under handmade rice straw mats for 21 days, this tea absorbs generous quantities of precious minerals which wash through the mats during rain showers and on dewy mornings. Thanks to gentle breezes and dappled rays of sunlight that filter through the braided straw, this glossy, jade-coloured tea grows very slowly, but in consequence, develops a brilliant sweetness and concentrated flavour. Be one of the first to taste a harvest fit for a king. Only 4.5kg are available worldwide.
