 Per Teapot  Per 50g*

ALISHAN IMPERIAL

Produced on the rolling Ali Mountain shrouded in clouds and mist, this luscious Taiwanese oolong is grown at an altitude of 1,200 metres above sea level in pristine alpine conditions. Picked and processed towards the end of spring, it is lightly fermented and produces a delicate, floral aroma and the sweet, crystalline flavour of the highlands.

$25.5 / $84.5

ALISHAN SUPERIOR

Grown by indigenous tea farmers in the Ali Mountain highlands at an altitude of 1,350 metres, this delightful moderately fermented Taiwanese oolong produces a glowing amber infusion and a flowery aroma. Notes of sweetness linger long on the palate.

$19.5 / $53.75

WENSHAN POUCHONG IMPERIAL

This exceptional handpicked semi-oxidized spring oolong from the Pinglin highlands of northern Taiwan is also known as Baozhong Blue Tea. Oxidation is carefully limited to the edge of the green tea leaves, a process which requires constant attention and care. Yielding a silky cup with a gentle floral aroma & a lingering after-taste, it is one of the most sought-after teas of Taiwan.

$19.5 / $53.75

WENSHAN POUCHONG SUPERIOR

A delightful semi-oxidized blue tea from the rolling hills of Pinglin in northern Taiwan. Only lightly roasted, this spring oolong produces a toasted cup celebrated for its fresh, green flavour and pleasantly smooth aftertaste.

$16.5 / $39

SUN MOON LAKE IMPERIAL

One of the most celebrated teas of Taiwan, this black tea is cultivated at 700 metres above sea level in the Yuchi township of Nantou county on the lush and rolling highlands above the shimmering Sun Moon Lake. Produced in extremely small quantities, this harvest is reputed for its full body and elegant finish. An exceptional afternoon tea.

$32.5 / $120.25

SUN MOON LAKE SUPERIOR

A unique hybrid of the indigenous Taiwanese tea plant, this black tea is grown in the gardens around the Sun Moon Lake in central Taiwan. Producing a rich cup, this infusion surprises with notes of fresh mint followed by a smooth aftertaste. A truly unique and inimitable tea.

$23 / $73.5
